Jayvees honored

Five members of the Appomattox junior varsity football team were named Players of the Week after last Thursday's game against Rustburg.

Offensive Players of the Week were offensive tackle Byron Whitted and offensive guard Roger Jackson. Coach Howard Clabough said that they both did "outstanding jobs blocking on the offensive line."

Defensive Players of the Week were Keith Fanney, who had eight solo tackles and four assists; Gary Scruggs, who had five solo tackles and one assist; and Leroy Woolridge who had five solo tackles and two assists.

Boy Scout Troop

holds honor meeting

Boy Scout Troop 546 held their Court of Honor Meeting last Thursday night, Oct. 4, at 7:30 p.m.

The Court of Honor Meeting is held quarterly to present the individual scouts with their merit badges, skill awards, and promotions.

Receiving a promotion to the rank of "Tenderfoot" were Brian Canada, John Worley, Darin Kidd and Donald Culpepper. Kevin Armentrout was promoted to the rank of Life. This rank is next to the Eagle Scout, which is the highest rank in Boy Scouts.

The troop also made plans for the Railroad Festival. They will have a booth to sell drinks and candy. They also plan to set up a camp to display some of the skills of the scouts.

Boy Scouts is an organization that teaches boys to become good citizens and trains them to become leaders. It is open to boys from the age of 11 to 18.

Anyone wanting more information or wanting to join, call Scoutmaster John Canada or come to any of the meetings. They are held every Thursday night at 7 at St. Anne's Episcopal Church on Oakleigh Avenue.

SCA meeting noted

The SCA, Student Cooperative Association, held their first meeting of the year on Tuesday, Sept. 18. The president, Pam Bennett, called the meeting to order.

Despite 409 yards offense

Raiders lose to Red Devils

By ALLEN AUSTIN

The Raider Varsity football team, with 409 total yards on offense, were unable to score on the big plays and lost to the Rustburg Red Devils in last Friday night's game.

The Raiders once again relied on their passing game, with 49 attempts and a total of 340 yards. The Raiders' running game was kept to 14 carries for 69 yards.

The Devils started their scoring drive at the 7:10 mark in the first quarter with a touchdown on their first set of downs. Fumbles and penalties seemed to keep the Raiders off stride during the night as the Devils, after securing a Raider fumble were able to score again with 4:59 remaining in the half to make it 14 - 0.

It looked like the Raiders were on a come-back when number 77, Tim Austin pulled down a Paul Johnson pass to apparently give the Raiders their first score. However, the Raiders' spirit was dampened as the touchdown was called back due to an offside penalty. With 54 seconds remaining in the half, the Raiders with fourth down and 16 yards called on Kevin Kendrick for an attempted 45-yard field goal. The ball fell just short of the uprights and as time ran out the halftime score remained Devils 14, Raiders 0.

The Raiders' best drive of the evening came early in the third quarter when they were able to march the ball to the Devils' 15-yard line, but were unable to score, turning the ball back over to the Devils.

At the 10:30 mark in the third quarter the Devils recovered a Raider fumble and started another drive. Alex Almond, number 10, for the Raiders, intercepted a Devil pass on the two - yard line preventing another devil score.

The Raiders' only score of the game came at 6:25 in the third quarter when Johnson, on a scramble, hooked up on a long pass to Austin which put them back in the game. Appomatox, trying to make up lost ground, went for the two-point conversion and missed, leaving the Raiders with six points.

With 4:30 left in the game, the Devils closed the door on the Raiders with another seven points and shut out any hopes for a Raider come-back.

It seemed like the Devils could do no wrong when, with 1:15 left they intercepted a Johnson to Austin pass and took it in for the final score of the game.

The Raiders' individual accomplishments in rushing were Russell Walton with eight carries for 39 yards; Andre McCoy five carries with for 22 yards and Paul Johnson one for five yards.

In pass receiving it was Tim Austin with six for 148 yards; Kevin Kendrick seven for 88 yards; Andre McCoy two for 41 yards and John Fedison four for 40 yards.

The 28 - 6 loss to the Rustburg Devils leaves the Raiders with a 2 - 3 record as they host the Brookville Bees this Friday night at Bragg Stadium.

Conner set for regional

Darrell Conner of the Appomattox County High School golf team qualified for the Region III, Group AA golf tournament in last week's district tournament at Winton Country Club.

Conner, who shot an 82 at Winton, was scheduled to travel to Botetourt Country Club today (Wednesday) to shoot a practice round in preparation for tomorrow's regional tournament.

The Appomattox team as a whole finished fourth in the Seminole District tournament. The team had a 1 - 10 record on the season and placed tenth in the Wintergreen Invitational tournament held earlier this season.

Conner was joined in the district tournament by Darren Tolley, Tom Cobb, Randy Lewis, Darrell Richardson and Bobby Moon.

Three other golfers participated on this year's teams: Sid Abernathy, Howard Anderson and Brett Marston.

"We were a young team this season," commented golf coach Doug Marshall. "We had only one senior, five juniors, and three freshman. But with the experience the boys got this season, they should see improvements next year."

Jayvees lose 21-0 to powerful Rustburg team

The Raider junior varsity football team lost 21-0 to powerful Rustburg team in a district contest last Tuesday at Appomattox.

The Rustburg Red Devils scored all the points in the game in the first quarter, which remained scoreless. In the second quarter, with time running out in the half, Rustburg mounted a drive which ended in a Red Devil score from a yard out, with six seconds remaining in the half.

A mental lapse resulted in the second Rustburg touchdown, a 75-yard punt return in the third quarter. Raider coach Howard Clabough noted that the Raiders had opportunities to stop the return, but failed to make the tackle.

Appomattox could muster only 89 yards of offense against the Red Devils picked off a Raider pass as Appomattox went to the air in an effort to get back into the game. The interception resulted in the Devil's third and final touchdown, giving the still unbeaten Rustburg jayvee squad a 21-0 victory.

Appomattox could muster only 89 yards of offense against what Clabough termed "the toughest defense we're run into all year."

On offense, Gary Scruggs ran the ball 16 times for 46 yards, and Keith Fanney had 15 yards on five carries.

Danny Williams was four for seven passing from his quarterback position against the Devils.

The defense was led by Fanney. Scruggs, Leroy Woolridge, Chip Hernecall, Keith Robinson, Vince Pannell, and Steve Booker.

"The kids played super in the first half, we just couldn't get much offense going," Clabough noted.

This Thursday, Appomattox will play district rival Brookville at Brookville at 6 p.m.

Raiderettes lose close game to Gretna Hens

The Raiderette varsity basketball team lost 60-43 to a tough Buckingham team last Tuesday night, then dropped a hard-fought contest to Gretna, 40-38 at Gretna last Thursday night.

Buckingham opened a lead early in Tuesday's game, and maintained that advantage through the entire contest. The Lady Knights led 15-10 at the end of the first quarter, and had stretched that lead to 29-23 by the end of the first half.

In the third quarter, Buckingham iced the game, scoring 21 points to Appomattox's eight. The Raiderettes made up some of that distance in the fourth quarter, scoring 12 points to Buckingham's 10, but the Lady Knights prevailed, 60 - 43.

"Buckingham's press created too many turnovers," commented Raiderette coach Mary Tolley after the game. "Our offense looked much better than in previous games, but the turnovers were our downfall again in this game."

Darlene Ferguson and Beverly Bennett were leading scorers for Appomattox, with 14 and 10 points, respectively. Janice Foster scored seven for the Raiderettes, Sally Coleman scored six, and Delores Smith, Aretha Johnson and Jennifer Worley each scored two points for Appomattox.

Alice Apperson was high scorer for Buckingham, with 26 points total. Johnice Brown scored 13 points, and Dalyn Seay scored 11 for the Lady Knights.

Thursday's game against Gretna was a different story. While the Hens jumped out to a commanding lead, 28-16 at the end of the first half, the Raiderettes came back in the second half to pull to within two points of Gretna before time ran out.

"We used a full-court press in the third quarter, and went into a man-to-man defense in the fourth quarter," Tolley noted. The Raiderettes outscored Gretna 11-8 in the third period, and Appomattox held the Hens to only four points in the final period, while 11 points themselves.

Tolley termed the comeback "one of our best efforts of the year. Janice Foster scored 13 points, had seven rebounds and one assist for Appomattox; Sally Coleman had 10 points,10 rebounds, four steals and one assist;Bev Bennett had five points, one steal and one assist; Delores Smith had four points, four rebounds, four steals and two assists; and Darlene Ferguson had two points, two rebounds, two steals and two assists for Appomattox.

Sandra Burnette and Kim Willis scored in double figures for Gretna, with 14 and 12 points, respectively.

The Raiderettes were scheduled to play Brookville Tuesday after the Times-Virginian deadline. Thursday night, the team will play Nelson County at home. Next Tuesday, the team will play William Campbell at William Campbell.

The jayvee girls' basketball games start at 6 p.m., with the varsity games beginning at approximately 7:30, following the jayvee contests.
